EMMA TENAYUCA AND THE 1938 SAN ANTONIO PECAN SHELLERS STRIKE 12:13 2019, designed for 8 to 14 year olds. ANNIE MAE CARPENTER AND THE UPRISING IN NACOGDOCHES 14:32 2019 designed for high school students. Short documentaries, largely original material with children, based on A Strike and an Uprising (in Texas). Instruction materials and outreach design under construction.

ASYLUM, TERROR, AND THE FUTURE, based on case stories with Jennifer Harbury, human rights attorney and activist, series of 6 webcasts with text and video from the U.S./Mexico border, published as an e-book <https://endfamilydetention.com/asylum-terror-and-the-future/>

A STRIKE AND AN UPRISING (IN TEXAS) 65:17 2018, “weaves together an alternative history of Texas from the pecan shellers of the early twentieth century through the removal of the Jefferson Davis statue from the University of Texas, Austin, in 2015. Texas radicals, especially women of color, and their hidden histories shine in this beautiful and innovative film. It is rich with archival footage and photographs, and we see the protagonists of these struggles piecing together fragments of their memories and their pasts. The connections between past and present-day struggles are vividly rendered.” Aviva Chomsky I think of this film as the monument that replaces the removed statue of Jefferson Davis: a monument to equality and freedom against one of oppression. Alessandro Portelli 2018 Cine Las Americas (Hecho en Tejas audience award); 2018 DC Labor Fest; 2018 San Francisco Labor Fest; screening in Rome, Italy; Interview, Texas Public Radio.

THE WOMEN ON THE BUS 12:50 2017 Fifty-seven women met on a ranch outside Austin, Texas for a thirty-hour bus ride to the Women's March on Washington. An unlikely group, they were age 13 to 70; white, Latina, and black, CIS gendered and off the binary; rural and urban. Four were undocumented -- one had spent 10 months in detention. They brought pillows, blankets, food, and clothing for 3 days. Several crocheted pink hats on the way. Most had never been to a mass demonstration. An informal video I made as one of these women.

WILLIE NELSON ON SAVING THE U.S. POSTAL SERVICE, 2016, 2 minute spot for the convention of the United Postal Workers of America and web release.

AUSTIN BELOVED COMMUNITY 2014 multimedia website based on Anne Braden: Southern Patriot which pulls together Austin based social justice organizations. With Jeanne Stern, animator. Funded in part by the City of Austin cultural contracts program.

ANNE BRADEN: SOUTHERN PATRIOT (1924-2006) 67:00 2012 in partnership with Mimi Pickering; funded in part by the Southern Humanities Media Fund. "A gem of a film, accented with freedom fighters who speak firsthand about carving a path through a traumatized, violent, racist South, to make way for one of the largest and most effective nonviolent movements for social change the world has ever seen." Joan Baez. "A magnificent portrait of the Anne Braden I knew: militantly anti-racist, and radical to the core. Anne Braden changed my life; this film will change yours." Robin D.G. Kelley. Screened at the S. Alamo Drafthouse, co-sponsorship with the Texas Observer and the Austin Film Society; DOXA film festival, Vancouver; numerous academic conferences and workshops.

MORRISTOWN: IN THE AIR AND SUN 60:00 2007, "brings the complex issue of globalization down to its human level where workers on both sides of the border, men and women, struggle to survive. Workers speak from the heart, whether in Spanish or English." Howard Zinn, Author, A People's History of the United States. Screened at the 2008 National Jobs with Justice Conference; 2007 U.S. Social Forum; 2007 Library of Congress Laborlore; 2007 Austin Film Festival; 2008 AMBULANTE Festival (16 cites in Mexico); Best Foreign Feature Documentary, 2008 International Film Festival of the Border.
